

International Multi-Conference on Computing, Communication, Electrical & Nanotechnology

– a platform for researchers

Department of ECE & EEE, Mangalam College of Engineering, Kottayam, Kerala is organized an International Multi - Conference on Computing, Communication, Electrical & Nanotechnology (I2CN-2K19) during 25th & 26th of April, 2019 at Mangalam Engineering College Campus. It brings together the researchers, academicians and aspiring students to the same platform and had given a chance to share their experiences, concerns and knowledge in the field of their research area.

The conference received 216 technical papers and after detailed review of experts,, 104 papers were selected for oral presentation. The conference is so scheduled to have around 8 parallel sessions in four different tracks but not confined to Nanotechnology, Renewable Energy Sources Upcoming Trends, Robotics, Internet of Things, Communication Systems and Power Electronic Converters.

The detailed Programme Schedule is attached at the end of this report.
